Dear Mark:

Thank you for submitting your idea in response to the Director's memorandum on Creative Problem Solving.

Unfortunately, what you suggest appears to be illegal--our activities must by law be financed by Congressional appropriations, and we have no interest in establishing any other mechanism to support our purposes.

Although we don't look with favor on this particular thought, we are pleased to have employees--especially summer interns such as yourself--taking the time to share their thoughts with us.

Sincerely,
